

APPENDIX: Plan for the implementation of the Action Plan for Better Regulation

Development of legislative planning and legislative drafting skills within the Government

Legislative planning	Preparation of a legislative plan covering the next two parliamentary sessions (to be updated each parliamentary session)
Coordination of legislative drafting	Preparation of a legislative programme for each government term (to be updated annually)
Project management	Introduction of a model for project planning Development of planning, monitoring and reporting in legislative drafting
Quality of legislative drafting	Determination of quality indicators for legislative drafting Increasing of dialogue (Government, Parliament, Office of the Chancellor of Justice)
Training on legislative drafting	Planning of a learning path for law drafters Reform of the contents of basic and continuing training Coordination of thematic and advanced training
Induction and on-the-job learning	Compilation of common induction materials Preparation of recommendations on the induction of law drafters
Reasons for the proposed legislation	Improvement of the quality of reasons for the proposed legislation (measures to be agreed upon based on an assessment of the current situation)
Competence in human and fundamental rights issues	Increasing of training and support to improve competence in human and fundamental rights issues

Development of transparency and stakeholder cooperation in legislative drafting

Transparency in legislative drafting	Support for the use of different methods and tools for participation and inclusion Support for the implementation of the Government Communications Strategy
Stakeholder cooperation	Improvement of the efficiency of the consultation process

Development of impact assessment and establishment of a system for ex post regulatory impact analysis

Impact assessment skills	Establishment of a knowledge network for impact assessment
Performance of impact assessments	Reform and introduction of impact assessment guidelines
Ex post regulatory impact analysis	Establishment and introduction of a system for ex post regulatory impact analysis

Utilisation of technology and digitalisation in legislative drafting

Knowledge base for legislative drafting	Improvement of the usability of material that supports legislative drafting
Development projects	Improvement of the utilisation of Finlex

Development of automation of enacting clauses and parallel texts
Other projects for the development of digitalisation to be decided separately
